

What will you choose to do?

- Draw a picture of your family. Add a label to each person to explain who they are.
- Find a board game or another turn taking game and play with your family. Why is it so important to take turns?
- Draw a picture of yourself in the middle of a piece of paper. Add pictures around the edges to show all of the things that you like to do.
- Think about all the jobs that need to be done at home. What jobs do you help with? Draw a picture or ask a grown up to take some pictures of you helping at home.
- What nursery rhymes do you know? Can you sing your favourite one to your grown up? Can you learn a new nursery rhyme?
- Who is your friend? Can you draw a picture of them and write their name? Why are they such a good friend? How are you a good friend to them?
- Go on a shape hunt at home. How many different shapes can you find? Draw a picture of some of the shapes that you found.
- Find a dice and some building blocks. Roll the dice and count out the right amount to make a tower. How tall can you make your tower before it falls down?
- There are lots of people in our community that help us. Do you know what all of these people do? Choose one of them and make a thank you card.
- Talk about the people who help us (see below). Try to use these words in a sentence.

doctor
